

Quick Facts - Camp Goodtime

Camp history

Since 1989, Camp Goodtime, sponsored by the New Brunswick Masonic Charities and Housing Company Limited, has been a summer haven for New Brunswick children who have cancer or have had cancer. It brings them together for a week of fun, adventure and friendships in a safe, medically supervised environment. Camp Goodtime is open to children aged 7–16. At age 13, the camper continues in the Junior Leadership Program which ends at age 16. All children and teens can bring a guest at no cost.

Camp location

Camp Goodtime is hosted by Camp Rotary on Grand Lake.

Number of campers

The camp can accommodate up to 60 campers.

Number of staff

Camp Rotary has approximately 35 staff during Camp Goodtime, including a pediatric oncology nurse.

Accommodation details

Campers sleep in their cabin groups and are supervised by 2–4 counsellors. These cabins are located near each other, which helps to foster a sense of community among the campers.

Transportation

Parents are responsible for transportation both to and from camp.

Camp address

Camp Rotary is located on Grand Lake, more precisely at Sunnyside Beach. Directions to camp are included in the confirmation package. You can also visit Camp Rotary's website at www.camprotary.ca

Nearest hospital

The nearest hospital to Camp is the Dr. Everett Chalmers Regional Hospital in Fredericton. Health clinics are also located nearby in Chipman/Minto.